

Call for Papers

- Open Call -

Journal Details

The Austrian Journal of South-East Asian Studies / Österreichische Zeitschrift für Südostasienwissenschaften (ASEAS) is a core project of the Society for South-East Asian Studies (SEAS) in Vienna. The journal's editors invite both established as well as young scholars to present research results and theoretical papers (scientific and journalistic texts are welcome), to report about ongoing research projects or field studies, to introduce academic as well as non-academic institutions, to publish conference reports and other short essays, to conduct interviews with experts on South-East Asia, or to review literature.

As an interdisciplinary journal, ASEAS intends to cover a variety of aspects of South-East Asia (archaeology, culture, economics, geography, linguistics, politics, society, etc.) from both historical as well as contemporary perspectives. Topics should be related to South-East Asia, but they do not need to be restricted to the geographical region, as in the case of - for example - linguistics, diaspora groups, forms of socio-cultural transfers, and so forth, where spatial and political borders of South-East Asia are crossed.

ASEAS is published biannually both in print and as an online Open Access-Journal. ISSN 1999-2521 (Print) and ISSN 1999-253X (Online).

Submission Details

This Call for Papers refers to ASEAS 2(1) and is open to different topics in accordance with the journal's profile as depicted above. Before submitting a paper or proposal please consider our Submission Guidelines (www.seas.at/aseas >ASEAS >Submissions). The deadline to hand in papers or proposals is March 15, 2009. Papers can be submitted in English and German. For further information please visit our website www.seas.at/aseas or contact us via aseas@seas.at.
