Focus Tourism

The issue 4 (1) of the Austrian Journal of South-East Asian Studies aims at featuring a focus on Tourism in South-East Asia. Of special interest to the board of editors are submissions dealing with one or several of the following issues:

- Domestic and Asian tourism in South-East Asia: while most academic work focuses on western tourists, one can observe a growth of domestic tourism within the South-East Asian countries as well a rise of Asian tourism to South-East Asia.
- Uncovering 'host experiences': what are the tourism-generated perspectives, views, challenges and chances of the members of the destination areas?
- Power and Representation in ethnic theme parks/human zoos/cultural festivals.
- Blessings for all? Alternative tourism development in SEA (community based-, pro-poor-, eco-tourism).
- Retiree tourism and second home development, health tourism
- Possible Methodological or Theory-wise specifics for Tourism related research in SEA.
- We also want to invite submission of interviews for this issue (therefore please contact the board of editors).
- We also accept submissions OUTSIDE THE FOCUS!
- Submission Deadline ASEAS 4(1): January 15, 2011
- More information: www.seas.at / aseas@seas.at
